

Contents

1	Questions to Pala	4
1.1	Deniyaya	4
1.2	Pallegama	7
1.2.1	Tell us about your time in Pallegama?	7
1.2.2	Who did you stay with?	7
1.2.3	How often did you go back home to your family?	7
1.2.4	What did you study at the Pallegama school?	7
1.2.5	Who were the other students there?	7
1.2.6	Who taught you?	7
1.2.7	What was the learning environment like?	7
1.2.8	Who were your friends with?	7
1.2.9	What were you interested in beyond your studies?	7
1.2.10	What did you do outside the time you were studying?	7
1.2.11	Do you have any specific memories about this time?	7
1.2.12	What was the wider environment in Pallegama like?	7
1.2.13	How was it different to the village?	7
1.2.14	How did you feel about this new environment?	7
1.2.15	The wider political context in Sri Lanka is worsening at this point in time, and is this becoming visible in your village and Pallegama?	7
1.2.16	Did you know people who were involved in the JVP?	7
1.2.17	How did you get to know them?	7
1.2.18	What did you think of them?	7
1.2.19	What did you think of their political ideas?	7
1.2.20	Did these appeal to you?	7
1.2.21	Did you feel motivated to support or contribute in some way?	7
1.3	Trauma - Skip this section unless he changes his mind	7
1.3.1	Who helped you through that time?	7
1.3.2	Did you keep making art at this time?	7
1.3.3	Did it help?	7
1.3.4	How long did you stay at home?	7
1.3.5	When did you return to Pallegama?	7
1.3.6	What was it like to return to Pallegama and your education?	7
1.3.7	It's impossible to imagine the trauma of that you underwent in that time in your life. Looking back, how do you think that experience changed/impacted you?	7

1.3.8	Does this encounter with violence influence your work?	7
1.4	Colonial violence x state violence	7
1.4.1	How so?	7
1.4.2	How would you describe this period of violence in Sri Lanka?	7
1.4.3	Does it feature in your art?	7
1.5	Matara	7
1.5.1	Can you tell us about your few months in the village before you moved to Matara?	7
1.5.2	When did you leave the village?	7
1.5.3	Why did you leave?	7
1.6	Pala leaves to go take his Advanced Level exams in a school in Matara	7
1.6.1	Did anyone in particular encourage you to leave? . . .	7
1.6.2	Had you been to Matara before?	7
1.6.3	What for?	7
1.6.4	Do you remember the day you left the village?	7
1.6.5	Do you remember what you felt?	7
1.6.6	Do you remember what happened when you arrived in Matara?	7
1.6.7	Do you remember what you felt?	7
1.6.8	Did you travel by yourself or with someone else? . . .	7
1.6.9	Where did you stay?	7
1.6.10	What did you do next?	7
1.6.11	Pala attempts to enroll at Rahula College in Matara, which requires a hefty admission fee. He refuses to burden his family with the cost and enrolls at the Pirivena next door so that he can pursue his A/L in fine art . .	7
1.6.12	What did you study at the Pirivena?	7
1.6.13	Who were the other students there?	7
1.6.14	Who taught you?	7
1.6.15	What was the learning environment like?	7
1.6.16	Where were you living during this time?	7
1.6.17	Who were your friends with?	7
1.6.18	What were you interested in beyond your studies? . .	7
1.6.19	What did you do outside the time you were studying in the pirivena?	7
1.6.20	Do you have any specific memories about this time? .	7
1.6.21	What was the wider environment in Matara like? . . .	7
1.6.22	How was it different to the village?	7

1.6.23	How did you feel about this new environment?	7
1.6.24	Did you spend time with other people or did you find yourself quite isolated?	7
1.6.25	What did you do after you finished your A/Ls?	7
1.7	Signboard painting for a landsale	7
1.7.1	What did you want do at this point in your life?	7
1.7.2	Pala's brother discouraged him from his request to join him in to Galle to work in the brother's jewellery work- shop and was instrumental to Pala's entrance into uni- versity	7
1.7.3	Tell us about your brother?	7
1.7.4	What was he like?	7
1.7.5	What did he do?	7
1.7.6	What role did your brother play in your life?	7
1.7.7	Do you have any specific memories about your brother?	7
2	Questions to Pala's Family	7
2.1	SAFE QUESTIONS	7
2.1.1	Can you describe the time Pala left to go to school in Pallegama?	7
2.1.2	How did you maintain contact with Pala was in Pal- legama?	7
2.1.3	Who was he staying with?	7
2.1.4	How often did you see him?	7
2.1.5	How often did he come home?	7
2.2	RED FLAG QUESTIONS: WHEN PALA WAS MIA	7
2.2.1	How did you get to know what happened to him when he was there?	7
2.2.2	How did you feel about this?	7
2.2.3	What happened after?	7
2.2.4	Did you look for him? How/where?	7
2.2.5	Did you go to the police or anywhere else?	7
2.2.6	How did you find out where he was?	7
2.2.7	What happened next?	7
2.2.8	What was it like to see him again after three months?	7
2.2.9	Did you take him back home?	7
2.2.10	What was that time at home like?	7
2.2.11	This must have been an incredibly difficult time for you, did this change your relationships within the fam- ily in any way?	7

2.2.12	How did you recover from this experience?	7
2.2.13	Is it possible to recover from such an experience? . . .	7
2.2.14	Were you keen for Pala to leave the village after this? . . .	7
2.2.15	What happened next?	7
2.3	GENERIC BEESHANAYA QUESTIONS	7
2.3.1	What did you encourage Pala to do?	7
2.3.2	How did this period of the beeshanaya/terror affect the village at large?	7
2.3.3	What changed in the village in its aftermath?	7
2.3.4	With the war and unrest in in various parts of the island, this was a turbulent period in Sri Lanka. Did this seep into the village in any way?	7
2.3.5	Did you notice any significant changes to life in the village of what is happening elsewhere on the island? . . .	7
2.3.6	Do you have any memories of any such specific incidents? . . .	7
2.3.7	Can you describe the time Pala left the village go to school in Matara?	7
2.3.8	Had he expressed a desire to leave?	7
2.3.9	How did you feel about him leaving?	7
2.3.10	Did you encourage him to leave?	7
2.3.11	How did you maintain contact with Pala was in Matara? . . .	7
2.3.12	Who was he staying with?	7
2.3.13	How often did you see him?	7
2.3.14	How often did he come home?	7
2.3.15	What was his life in Matara like?	7
2.3.16	How does Pala end up going to Colombo?	7

TITLE: Pala CREDIT: Written by AUTHORS: Vindhya Buthpitiya,
Theena Kumaragurunathan NOTES: Working Production Draft
COPYRIGHT: (c) 2022, Vindhya Buthpitiya, Theena Kumaragurunathan
Sahodaraya

1 Questions to Pala

1.1 Deniyaya

- Had the village changed much since your childhood - socially/economically/politically?
- How so?

- With the war and unrest in in various parts of the island, this was a turbulent period in Sri Lanka. Did this seep into the village in any way?
- Did you notice any significant changes to life in the village of what is happening elsewhere on the island?
- I imagine military recruitment and its impact on villages in the rural south as well as the burgeoning unrest with the JVP, widespread poverty
- Do you have any memories of any such specific incidents?

1.2 Pallegama

- 1.2.1 Tell us about your time in Pallegama?
- 1.2.2 Who did you stay with?
- 1.2.3 How often did you go back home to your family?
- 1.2.4 What did you study at the Pallegama school?
- 1.2.5 Who were the other students there?
- 1.2.6 Who taught you?
- 1.2.7 What was the learning environment like?
- 1.2.8 Who were your friends with?
- 1.2.9 What were you interested in beyond your studies?
- 1.2.10 What did you do outside the time you were studying?
- 1.2.11 Do you have any specific memories about this time?
- 1.2.12 What was the wider environment in Pallegama like?
- 1.2.13 How was it different to the village?
- 1.2.14 How did you feel about this new environment?
- 1.2.15 The wider political context in Sri Lanka is worsening at this point in time, and is this becoming visible in your village and Pallegama?
- 1.2.16 Did you know people who were involved in the JVP?
- 1.2.17 How did you get to know them?
- 1.2.18 What did you think of them?
- 1.2.19 What did you think of their political ideas?
- 1.2.20 Did these appeal to you?
- 1.2.21 Did you feel motivated to support or contribute in some way?

1.3 Trauma - Skip this section unless he changes his mind

- 1.3.1 Who helped you through that time?
- 1.3.2 Did you keep making art at this time?
- 1.3.3 Did it help?
- 1.3.4 How long did you stay at home?
- 1.3.5 When did you return to Pallegama?
- 1.3.6 What was it like to return to Pallegama and your education?
- 1.3.7 It's impossible to imagine the trauma of that you underwent in that time in your life. Looking back, how do you think